

Public Health and Medicine Summit

“High Quality, Evidence Based Education to Prepare Indiana Health Care Professionals to make Hoosiers Healthy”

June 3-4, 2008

Adam’s Mark Hotel and Conference Center
Indianapolis International Airport Location

Back ground:

Public Health and Medicine Summit goal: To provide evidence based education to prepare Indiana public health and health care professionals to make Hoosiers healthy.

Public Health and Medicine Summit overall objective: Demonstrate how public health and medicine collaborations support each other to improve the health of communities.

AGENDA

Tuesday, June 3, 2008

11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Registration

12:00-4:00 p.m. Concurrent Workshops

Case Investigation and Surveillance	Interviewing Skills for Sensitive Health Topics	Tuberculosis	Hepatitis A-E	Leadership & Communication in Pressing Times
-------------------------------------	---	--------------	---------------	--

Wednesday, June 4, 2008

7:15-8:00 a.m. Registration/Beverages

8:00-8:15 a.m. Welcome (Dr. Judy Monroe, Indiana State Health Commissioner)

8:15-9:30 a.m. Keynote Speaker

9:30-10:45 a.m. Concurrent Session #1

Refugee Health	Food Safety	Tobacco	Climate Change	Immunizations	Obesity
----------------	-------------	---------	----------------	---------------	---------

10:45-11:00am

Break

11:00a.m.-12:15 p.m.

Concurrent Session #2

Obesity	Communicable Disease Rule	Antimicrobial Resistance	Climate Change?	Tobacco	Immunizations
---------	------------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------	---------	---------------

12:15-1:30 p.m.

Networking Lunch (on site)
“Food Safety”- David McSwane

1:30-2:45 p.m.

Concurrent Session #3

Food Safety	Communicable Disease Rule	Vectorborne Diseases in Indiana	Medical Error Reporting	Antimicrobial Resistance	Asthma Guidelines
----------------	------------------------------	---------------------------------------	-------------------------------	-----------------------------	----------------------

2:45-3:45 p.m.

Closing Plenary Session (hot topic)
Public Health Practitioner Award Presentation

Last updated: 3/10/2008